TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 6.

MAKE FRIENDS—Life is very critical. Any word may be our last. Any farewell, even among friends and relatives, may be forever. If this truth were but burned into our consciousness, and if it ruled as a deep conviction and power in our lives, would it not give a new meaning to all our human relationships? Would it not make us far more tender than we sometimes are? Would it not oftentimes put a rein upon our rash and impetuous speech? Would we carry in our hearts the miserable suspicions and jealousies that now so often embitter the fountain of our loves? Would we be so impatient of the faults of others? Would we allow trivial misunderstandings to build up strong walls between us and those we ought to be close to? Would we keep alive petty quarrels, year after year, which a manly word any day would compose? Would we pass neighbors or old friends on the street without recognition, because of some real or fancied slight, some wounding of pride, or some accidental glance? Or would we be so chary of our kind words, our comfort, when weary hearts all about us are craving for just such expressions of interest or appreciation as we have in our power to give?

AUCTION SALES.

VIRGINIA MIDLAND R. R.

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.
By virtue of and in obedience to a decree rendered by the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria in the chancery cause of John C. Fitzhugh vs. The Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad Company and others, on the 13th day of February, 1880, I shall, in front of the Market Building, on Royal street, in the city of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, at twelve (12) o'clock, on THURSDAY, the 13th day of May, 1880, sell at public auction to the highest bidder the following described property:

The entire line of railroad known as the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad, lying between the city of Alexandria and the city of Danville, and from the town of Manassas, in the county of Prince William, on the aforesaid main line, to the town of Harrisonburg, in the county of Rockingham, together with all the branches thereof as they now exist, with all appurtenances and equipment, rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real and personal, and all other things, and all branches respectively belonging, or in any way appertaining, including the roadway and tracks, rails and roadbed, side tracks, bridges, viaducts, trestles, fences, stations, depots, machine shops, and all other buildings and structures, docks and wharves, and all gravel pits and deposits of materials and all other things, long or to be used, or designed to be used, for or in connection with the said railroad or branch railroads respectively, together with all locomotives and tenders, freight and passenger cars, and all other cars, and all other rolling stock or equipment whatsoever, machinery, tools, and all materials for the use of said railroad or any of its branches and all other personal property thereunto belonging, including all property and things whatsoever of any such nature or description as is above mentioned. The said line of railway and branches extends a total distance of 316 miles.

The purchaser of said road and property above described will also be substituted to the rights and assume the responsibilities of said defendant company under a contract between said company and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, dated on the 29th day of August, 1878, whereby the said Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company leases from said defendant company so much of the said road as lies between Strasburg and Harrisonburg, and so much of said road as lies between said points will be sold subject to said lease.

The said purchaser will further take said road and other property and the contracts made under the order of the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria by the Receiver in said suit with the Charlottesville and Rapidan Railroad Company, and the Franklin and Pittsylvania Railroad Company—and subject to all other contracts of the receiver in regard to said property, whether made under order of the Circuit Court, or otherwise, and will assume all his liabilities thereunder. Should the purchaser not comply with the terms of sale, there will be a resale at his cost and risk.

Terms: The terms upon which said Commissioner shall sell said property as set forth in the terms of the contract, cash to a sum of money equal to the principal and interest of all bonds secured by deeds of trust on said property or any part thereof, except those secured by the deed of trust of the defendant corporation, dated on the 1st of May, 1877, in which D. H. Miller, Robert Garman and John W. Burke, are Trustees, and for a further amount of cash to be paid by the purchaser on the debt secured by the deed of trust on a sum equal to the principal of the debt which has been heretofore ascertained to be due under said deed, on such credits as will meet the amount of said debt at maturity, taking care that as to such deferred payments a provision be made for the purchaser to pay interest on the purchase money in installments that the interest to be paid by him shall meet the coupons for interest yet to fall due on said principal—as to residue of the purchase money on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest from date of sale.

For the deferred payments above provided for the Commissioner shall take the obligation of the purchaser and return them with his report of sale, when the Court will direct how the payment of the same shall be secured by some satisfactory lien on the premises sold.

Of the cash, which is herein provided shall be required on the sale of said property two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000.00) shall be paid to the Commissioner within five days after said sale, and the residue shall be paid by the purchaser upon the confirmation of said sale in such manner as the Court in the decree of confirmation may direct.
